

AFDICA Charitable Services at Work Army Scholarship Foundation

A key component of AFDICA's mission is advancing financial literacy. In 2023 AFDICA partnered with the Army Scholarship Foundation to provide scholarships to children or spouses of military members to pursue financial degrees. The four 2025 awardees for the 2025-2026 academic year are:

Alexis Mathis of Aiken, South Carolina. Alexis will enter the University of South Carolina at Columbia, SC and will major in Finance and Accounting. Alexis is the daughter of Master Sergeant & Mrs. Kenneth Mathis. MSG Mathis was assigned with the 117th Engineer Brigade and served in combat in Afghanistan.

Benjamin Dresbach of Olathe, Kansas. Benjamin will enter Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas, and major in Business and Finance. He is the son of Captain & Mrs. James Dresbach. Captain Dresbach served in combat in Kosovo and also in Southwest Asia.

Gabriel Sorensen of Vilseck, Germany. Gabriel is a sophomore at Brigham Young University in Provo, UT where he is studying Finance and Accounting and Business Strategy. Gabriel is the son of Major Travis Sorensen who is serving with the Second Armored Cavalry Regiment in Vilseck, Germany.

Thor Newsome of Elizabethtown, Kentucky. Thor is a Junior at the University of Louisville in Louisville, Kentucky majoring in Business and Finance. Thor is the son of Specialist & Mrs. Brian Newsome. Specialist Newsome served at Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

